

FAQ

What makes Oz Music different?

Oz Music has been in the entertainment industry since 1980. When it comes to a successful wedding, experience counts and we have had 20 years of it, Australia wide.

Do you supply lighting?

Yes, at all our functions we supply discrete appropriate lighting as a part of the complete package.

Can we request songs?

Yes, our entertainers are here to help make your occasion special and would be only too happy to play your requests. Also if you have any extra special requests you would like to make sure are played, then we suggest you tell us of them at the time of booking.

How early should we book?

We advise that couples should contact us soon after you arrange the reception venue. As with all high quality wedding services we are always heavily booked in advance, especially during the peak season.

Do you require a deposit ?

Yes, we understand that there are numerous up front costs, but you will be asked for a small deposit to secure the availability of your special date.

What type of music do you play?

We play a wide selection of music types, Rock 'N' Roll, Classics, Ballads and Dance. We draw from the sixties right up to the latest releases.
